St Bride's Women's Group

The Group will next meet on Tuesday 20 January, when the theme of the meeting will be *Glasgow City Mission - Celebrating 200 Years.

Karen from Glasgow City Mission has sent a letter thanking the knit 'n' natter for the blankets – see next page.

The Knit and Natter Group will re-start on Thursday 8 January.

Dear Wonderful Knitters,

Thank you to the Knit and Natter Group

On behalf of everyone at Glasgow City Mission's Child and Family Centre in Govan and Linthouse, I would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to you for the beautiful hand-knitted blankets you so generously gifted to our families this winter.

Your kindness and care have meant far more than warmth alone. For the families who received a blanket, each one was a tangible expression of compassion — something made with time, skill and genuine thoughtfulness. Many of the parents we support were deeply moved to know that these blankets were lovingly handmade, especially for them and their children.

At a time of year that can be particularly challenging, your generosity brought comfort, dignity and a sense of being valued. Acts like yours remind the families we support that they are not alone, and that there is a wider community who cares deeply about their wellbeing.

Please accept our sincere thanks for the time, effort and love that went into every stitch. Your support has made a real and lasting difference, and we are truly grateful to each and every member of the Knit and Natter group at St Bride's Church.

With warmest thanks and best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Karen

MUSIC IN JANUARY

The next in our current, monthly series of Organ Recitals will take place on Sunday 4 January at 1.00 p.m., given by Eilidh Harris. Possibly the youngest Organist ever to have contributed to any of our series, Eilidh was recently Organ Scholar at St Mary's Cathedral whilst a Pupil at Douglas Academy, and is now at the Birmingham Conservatoire as a First Study Organist. Her varied programme reflecting the turn of the year will feature music by Bach, Buxtehude, Franck and Mendelssohn. Donations to our Robert Lamont Music Fund invited. All welcome.

A reminder of Sing for Your Life!— and your wellbeing. On Thursday, 15 January, Rebecca and Alan Tavener will lead another cheerful, relaxed get-together to enjoy the health benefits of singing, food- and drink-themed – free to all, requiring no previous experience of music or singing. A chance for you to come and channel your inner Mary Poppins, Food, glorious Food will include Java Jive, Yes, we have no Bananas and A Spoonful of Sugar, to name a few... This is a monthly event at St Bride's, collaborating with Cappella Nova Outreach – feel free to let Alan know in advance or just turn up! Refreshments will be available. Thursday 15 January, 2.00 for 2.15-3.15 p.m.

Eilidh Harris is an undergraduate organ student at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, studying under the tutelage of Daniel Moulton and Nicholas Wearne. Their studies are generously supported by the RBC McDonald Foundation Scholarship and the Derby and District Organists' Association. Originally from Glasgow, Eilidh has previously held positions as the Bernard Porter Organ Scholar at St Mary's Cathedral Glasgow and Organist at All Saints Jordanhill. During that time they also studied as a pianist at the Music School of Douglas Academy. Eilidh has performed in concert with Sowne of Organe on historical instruments across Scotland, and as an accompanist for concerts and competitions (including the Cumnock Tryst and Rotary Young Musician Finals) in Scotland and the UK.
