Music for a While

Wednesday 11 November
5.45-6.30pm

November's rush-hour sequence of calming and thoughtful music and poetry will be on the themes of remembrance, Paradise, and St Cecilia (Feast Day 22 November). There will be music by Purcell, Chausson, Fauré, Elgar, Butterworth, Mendelssohn and J S Bach, interleaved with poems by W H Auden, Wilfred Owen, Robert Graves, Christina Rossetti and Thomas Hardy. A full list will appear in church on Sunday 8 November. Free to all. Please spread the word!

Join us for some relaxed, meditative, soothing listening between the working day and the evening's pleasures on:

Wednesday 11 November – 5.45-6.30pm
(following Evening Prayer at 5.00pm)
